Dear Ms. Lim,

I hope this message finds you well. I wanted to follow up on the email I sent yesterday to both yourself and Mr. Binkley. I understand that you may have a busy schedule, but I would greatly appreciate any updates or guidance you can provide at your earliest convenience.

Please let me know if there is anything further you need from me to help address this matter.

Thank you for your time, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

J Michae Morris

Dear Ms. Lim,

I hope this message finds you well. I recently spoke with the officer handling the report concerning the incident with my child, and he mentioned that the nurse stated the injury did not break the skin. However, I have video footage from the day in question, captured just moments before informing the principal and the school officer. Given the importance of this information, I would like to share the footage with the officer for his review.

Since I do not have the officer's email address, would you kindly forward this footage to him at your earliest convenience? Please let me know if you need any further details or assistance.

Thank you for your continued help in addressing this matter.

Best regards,

J Morris
